Dear Colleagues,

Mark your calendar now! The International Alliance for Invitational Education® summons you most cordially to attend the IAIE 2008 World Conference on Invitational Education to be held on September 18-20 in Chicago at the Hyatt Regency Deerfield.

The conference theme is Educating with Humanity, Humility, and Humor. The conference focuses on the affective components of the educative process, while addressing pressing cognitive concerns. This World Conference will bring together dedicated educators, allied professionals, and business, civic, and community leaders from throughout the United States and many other countries.

Some unique features of this exciting Invitational Education world conference include:

- Presentations by noted international authorities and delightful speakers who will share their thoughts on how to incorporate the concepts of humanity, humility, and humor within the framework of Invitational Education.
- Many displays prepared by Inviting School Award Winners from numerous states and nations.
- Several dozen hands-on workshops presented by experienced leaders in Invitational Education

Come and mingle with Alliance Members from throughout the world in a warm and friendly atmosphere. You will be inspired and rejuvenated, both personally and professionally. For more information, please visit www.invitationaleducation or contact Dr. Charlotte Reed, Conference Director, at creed@iun.edu or by mail at:
