An Invitation to YOU

Invitational Education® is a fresh and innovative approach to developing, maintaining, and enhancing optimal learning environments that encourage social and emotional learning and strengthen culturally responsive education. It is a theory of practice based on optimism, trust, respect, care and intentionality.

The World Conference is the annual gathering of worldwide Alliance members to share their research and practices. The schedule features general sessions with internationally recognized authorities on Invitational Education. These sessions are enhanced by many small group sessions demonstrating Invitational Education in action.

The IAIE Leadership Institute is a pre-conference program with featured speakers and roundtable discussions to invite and develop leaders for IAIE, September 29 to October 1. (information on back of this brochure)
