Dear IAIE Members and Friends,

The International Alliance for Invitational Education® is pleased to announce the publication of Fundamentals of Invitational Education, authored by William W. Purkey and John Novak. This new book offers a valuable introduction and overview of invitational theory and practice. It is a “must have” for any professional who practices, teaches, or promotes Invitational Education®.

Fundamentals of Invitational Education will be of tremendous value for:

Professors who make the book required reading, particularly for introductory courses.

Superintendents, Supervisors, Principals, and other Administrators who want to introduce Invitational Education to their faculties and staffs.

Workshop Directors who use the book as a basic guide for participants.

Presenters who wish to give their audiences a grounding in Invitational Education.

Alliance Members who desire to give the book to friends and colleagues. It will make a great gift for graduation, birthdays, holiday seasons, and other significant events.

Again, by ordering 20 or more copies of this $9.00 book, you receive a special 50% discount of $4.50 per copy. Money generated will support the IAIE mission of building, maintaining, and enhancing truly welcoming schools and allied institutions. Place your order now!

Sincerely yours,

David A. Chapman
Executive Director, IAIE
